

Advertising in the Charolais Journal 2025

We would like to invite you to advertise your herd or business in the Charolais Journal.

The Journal is posted to all our members in January and is available for the wider farming community to collect at a variety of regional and national shows and sales, so has a significant circulation.

To reserve your space please could you advise me by email or telephone as below.

All adverts are required by 2 December 2024.

Adverts are required as high quality PDF. If you would like help putting together an advert please let me know.

We welcome advertising from all Commercial partner's, please do not hesitate to contact me if you require any further information.
